Dear Parishioners and Friends,

No sooner has the Christmas season come to an end, than we meet the mature Christ! No longer is he passively lying in a manger while visitors of every description—angels, shepherds, and kings—come to visit him; he is now inhabiting the fullness of his manhood, his identity, and his mission!

Many young adults have a desire to do something radical with their lives, and to “change the world”, but life gradually overtakes them and they find themselves losing their idealism, and settling down to a less ambitious and more ‘realistic’ life of career and family.

Not so with Jesus! Expansion of the carpentry business is not on his mind, and settling down to family life is not on his agenda! In his baptismal moment, Jesus breaks forth from his hidden life with his parents in Nazareth and bursts forth into the world with the most unbelievable power.

The message of Jesus is one of transformation of every world-weary human heart, of reform of every unjust structure; his message of hope is for all those who need to feed on a motivation which can't be satisfied by earthbound rewards and privileges.

“That's my boy!” exclaims the Father, in delight. And the Father speaks those words over us when we are immersed—body, soul, and spirit—into the life of Christ at our baptism.

May God's blessing be upon us,

Fr Gerard

“Do all the good you can,
by all the means you can,
in all the ways you can,
in all the places you can,
at all the times you can,
to all the people you can,
as long as you ever can.”
