Church open for Private Prayer

One of the effects of Covid was finding that we had to close the church and then restrict the opening of church. One of the special things about Sacred Heart Church was the fact that it was open during the day for private prayer and a few people made use of the opportunity for some quiet time with God.

It would be good to return to those days and perhaps more people would make the effort to spend some time in the peace and quiet this church offers. To do so, we need people to volunteer to open the church on Mondays and Thursdays about 10.00am and to lock the church about 4.00pm on Sundays, Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays. We already have a volunteer for Wednesday and so this coming week the church will be open on Wednesdays. Don't worry if you volunteer and find occasions when you are not available. We are happy to make other arrangements for those days.

If you are able to give this service please contact the office or Father Peter. Many thanks.

Last week's offertory collections: £569.58 Many thanks.

Cafod collection so far this month is £933.61. Very well done, but I'm sure we can hit the £1,000.

The Sacred Triduum

The Sacred Triduum is a single Liturgical action which is celebrated in three parts. It celebrates and brings us into the Paschal Mystery of Christ, which is His saving suffering, death and resurrection. It begins with the Last Supper, then gives us the celebration of the Passion and then the Resurrection. These three parts of the single 'action' will be celebrated in Colne at Sacred Heart Church on Maundy Thursday night, the celebration of the Last Supper, 7.00pm.; Good Friday, the Sacred Liturgy of the Lord's Passion, 3.00pm.; and on Holy Saturday, the Easter Vigil at 7.00pm.

They will also be celebrated in Nelson by Father Gerard at Holy Saviour's and I'll give details as soon as they are finalised.

These are the most central celebrations of our Catholic Faith so please make a special effort to make them your priority this year. God bless, Fr. Peter
