Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Saturday, 2nd July, 2022 - the day that Bishop John Arnold came to preside over the final Mass to be celebrated at the Vaughan Street church in St John Southworth's parish. In a sunlit church, parishioners from past and present gathered in good numbers to say their final goodbyes to a church that has served the Catholics in Nelson for over 100 years. As school, church, and social club, St John Southworth's church has many stories to tell: memories, both happy and sad which, when reflected on in faith and prayer, reveal God's steadfast providence and faithfulness.

The video-recording of the Mass can be viewed on this link: Final Mass, 2nd July, 2022

However, we can't afford to linger for too long, because, as Bishop John reminded us, we have a continuing mission to accomplish. And indeed, in today's Sunday Gospel we hear that the harvest is rich, and we the labourers are only few!

And so, encouraged by the Bishop, we pray:
'Stay with us, Lord, on our journey'

Fr Gerard
