Dear Parishioners and Friends,
 We were blessed with warm sunshine and a pleasant breeze for our parish trip to Morecambe. The parish priest, Fr Darren, at St Mary's had everything ready for us - even rescheduling a baptism to an earlier time of 11.30am so as to be out of our way when we arrived.

After Mass in the beautiful Pugin church, we made our way round to the parish hall where we were able eat our packed lunches before enjoying a free afternoon during which many strolled along the front taking in the sea air and the views across the bay.

An optional time of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament came to a close with Benediction at 5.15pm before a safe return for all back to Nelson at 6.30pm.

You can see the Mass on the link below:

Take care and have a great week,
 Fr Gerard
