New! Live-streamed Masses each day from Christ Church.

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

The Christian faith is most definitely a "plunging in" faith! You can never learn to swim by sitting on the side of the pool, dangling your toes into the water! The rather strange experience of being held afloat is open only to those who go through that rather frightening experience of letting go of the more familiar dry-land securities and discovering that in the water we can enjoy rather different freedoms.

The word 'baptism' which means 'immersing' or 'dunking' is an apt initiation ritual for entering into the Christian life because it speaks to us of a lifetime of letting go of familiar securities until our confidence lies in God alone. "Let go, and let God" is one of the well-known maxims which captures the Christian attitude of abandonment to the will of the Father.

Today, we celebrate the baptism of the Lord who teaches us that to follow him into an "out of our depth" experience of life is to discover a whole new confidence in God's love, giving us the courage to emerge from the water and to throw ourselves into the mission of the Church!

May God bless you and your families, and hold you in his love,

Fr Gerard.

Readers for Sunday Mass

I would think that many of us have been putting off all sorts of things until after the pandemic is over, but our procrastination (great word!) can't go on for ever! One thing that I keep thinking about is that it would be very helpful to have a rota for readers for Sunday Mass. It's very unfair of me to give someone two minutes notice before Mass! To my knowledge, the current readers are Margaret Borman, Margaret Needham, Roger Lee, Joan Penny-Hayes, Maureen Rawlinson, Gerard King, Maggie King, Monica McArdle. If you are already a reader or would like to offer to serve as a reader then could you let me know of your availability? You can use the email at the top of this page. If we could re-establish a rota, then that would be great help for everybody. Thank you!

The Requiem Mass for Joan Simm will take place at Sacred Heart church on Wednesday 13th Jan at 2.30pm. The Mass, unfortunately, will be for family and invited guests only, due to Covid restrictions. We keep Joan and her family in our prayers at this time.
