'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.'

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Next Sunday, we will have the grand opening of the new social space at Holy Saviour's. It has been something of a journey, as all building projects tend to be. The presbytery was, for a period of time, an interior building site, and although precautions were taken to keep the dust contained, there is still a layer of dust over every single surface in the whole house!

Next Saturday, 24th June, we will have a cleaning day beginning at 10.00am during which every surface must be wiped, and every corner vacuumed. The work of cleaning the church and house is one of the shared responsibilities of the parish community, so please do think about making a contribution for an hour or so next Saturday morning. May the Lord send some of his servants along!

Have a restful weekend,
Fr Gerard

Home-baking Cake Sale

Next Sunday, 25th June, we will have a Home-baking Sale after our two Sunday Masses. If you can bake a cake, rustle up some biscuits, or produce a pie or a tart, then all contributions will be welcome!

The proceeds will go towards subsidising the coach trip to Lytham, and providing a donation to the parish in Lytham where we will be able to use the church and parish hall.

The Cake Sale at Holy Saviour's will be a most fitting way of opening the newly refurbished social space in the presbytery which is now looking quite splendid!

FIRST HOLY COMMUNIONS

The Sacramental Programme for this year has now been completed, with 48 children having made their First Holy Communion over the last five weeks. I would like to thank Monica, the catechists, and the parents for such a great effort in helping to bring the children to this most important moment in their life of faith. We know that in these secularised times it is not an easy task to promote the Catholic faith, but we pray that the Holy Spirit will magnify all our efforts!
