Dear Parishioners and Friends, Holy Saviour's presbytery was the place to be this last weekend! With building-work and refurbishment completed, the downstairs area was ready for the BIG CLEAN!

THE BIG CLEAN GETS UNDERWAY!

You've been framed!

Thank you to the great group of people who came along to do such a wonderful job of tidying, cleaning, and putting the final touches to what is now an amazing social space at Holy Saviour's.

Deacon 'Spiderman' Damian, is determined to polish the most awkward of windows!

Sarah brandishes
her entry to the
'Most Outrageous
Duster' competition!

And so the scene was set for the Grand Opening of the new social space with the Home-baking Cake Sale to take place on the following day.....

What a great result...

£455.00

Raised by the double Cake sale held at Christ Church and Holy Saviour's.

Thank you to all our bakers!!

Joe Winkley, "I'll just take one for now—I do have another Mass to go to you know!"

These cakes are just too nice to save for later!

Ash's grandson takes four cakes... just for starters, you understand!

The statue of Mary, beautifully restored by Eva, brings a peaceful presence to the back garden at Holy Saviour's

Tony Quinn is chairman of the board as parishioners try out the newly upholstered benches from Vaughan St.
