Notices from the diocese

Modern Slavery: Breaking the Chains

With latest reports showing a growing number of people both around the world and in the UK at risk of modern slavery, Caritas Salford and the Diocese of Salford have launched a new initiative to further help stop modern slavery in all its forms in communities in Greater Manchester and Lancashire.

Our churches and schools are often the first place that people experiencing the crime of slavery turn to for support and the special Modern Slavery: Breaking the Chains training session (in partnership with the Santa Marta Group, Greater Manchester Police and the Medaille Trust) seeks to help us all gain a better understanding the risks of Modern Slavery and how to address them and support those affected.

Find out more: <https://www.caritassalford.org.uk/breakingchains/> or enquire about running one in your own parish by contacting Matt Yates, Parish and Communities Engagement Co-ordinator, Caritas Salford modernslavery@caritassalford.org.uk.

The Irish Government Mother and Baby and County Home payment scheme is open for applications to people who spent time in one of 44 institutions that existed across the Republic of Ireland from 1922 to 1998. If you were in one of these homes and would like free and confidential support to apply for a payment or to access counselling, obtain Early Life Records, try to trace a family member, or even for just a chat please contact Patrick Rodgers at Fréa - Renewing Roots on 07432138682.

Notice about scam email

The Diocese of Salford has shared a warning about a scam email that has been circulated to some parishes in our diocese, purporting to be from the parish priest. Please be aware that this is not a genuine email. If you come across any such email, please do not engage with it and simply delete it from your inbox. If you are ever unsure about an email from the parish, please call the parish office to check on it.

Thank you for your response to the invitation to have the new Lectionaries dedicated to the memory of your family members.

I'm delighted to be able to report that through your enormous generosity, all four Lecturn Lectionaries, the four sacristy Lectionaries and the Processional Book of the Gospels have now been paid for.

When they arrive (they are expected mid-October) they will be available for you to see.
